UNOFFICIAL VERSION

Rep. Cochran moved that House Bill No. 1997 be passed on third and final consideration.

Rep. Keisling moved adoption of State Government Committee Amendment No. 1 as follows:

Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 1997 by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-5-301(b), is amended by deleting the language:

An administrative judge or hearing officer shall, upon the judge's or the officer's own motion, or timely motion of a party, decide any procedural question of law.

and substituting the following:

An administrative judge or hearing officer shall decide a procedural question of law.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-5-306(a)(1), is amended by deleting the language ", upon the administrative judge's or the hearing officer's own motion, or upon the motion of one (1) of the parties or such party's qualified representatives,".

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-5-311(a), is amended by inserting the following language after the first sentence:

The director of the administrative procedures division of the secretary of state's office may issue subpoenas on behalf of an administrative judge employed by the secretary of state.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-5-312(c), is amended by deleting the subsection and substituting the following:

(c) The administrative judge or hearing officer and agency members may, by agreement of the parties, conduct all or part of the hearing telephonically, electronically, or by audio-visual means if each participant in the hearing has an opportunity to participate in, hear, and, if technically feasible, see the entire proceedings while the proceedings are taking place. Notwithstanding this authority, the administrative judge or hearing officer may permit the testimony of a witness by contemporaneous audio-visual transmission from a different location when the absence of the witness would otherwise cause a delay to the hearing.

This is a draft version of the House Journal and is to be considered UNOFFICIAL. It will become the official record of the House after it has been adopted by the House.

SECTION 5. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-5-312(d), is amended by deleting the subsection and substituting the following:

(d) The hearing must be open to public observation pursuant to title 8, chapter 44, unless otherwise provided by state or federal law. To the extent that a hearing is conducted telephonically, electronically, or by audio-visual means, the availability of public observation may be satisfied by giving members of the public an opportunity, at reasonable times, to hear or view a recording, as applicable, and to inspect a transcript obtained by the agency, except as otherwise provided by § 50-7-701.

SECTION 6. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-5-314(g), is amended by deleting the subsection and substituting the following:

(g) Unless the period is waived or extended with the written consent of all parties or for good cause shown, a final order rendered under subsection (a) or an initial order rendered under subsection (b) must be rendered in writing within ninety (90) days of:

(1) The filing of the tape recording, stenographic notes or symbols, or transcript of the hearing, if requested on the record by the administrative judge or hearing officer, or the filing of the proposed findings in accordance with subsection (f). If both are filed, then the order must be rendered within ninety (90) days of the latter filing; or

(2) The completion of the hearing, if neither of the filings in subdivision (g)(1) are requested by the administrative judge or hearing officer.

SECTION 7. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-5-317(a), is amended by deleting the subsection and substituting the following:

(a) A party, within fifteen (15) days after entry of an initial or final order, may file a petition for reconsideration, stating the specific grounds upon which relief is requested. A petition for reconsideration of a final order that has become a final order by operation of law when no party timely filed a petition for reconsideration of an initial order or when the petition for reconsideration of an initial order was denied is not permitted. The filing of a petition for reconsideration is not a prerequisite for seeking administrative or judicial review.

SECTION 8. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-5-318(d), is amended by deleting the subsection and substituting the following:

(d) A party is not required to comply with a final order unless the final order has been mailed to the last known address of the party or the party's attorney, the final order has been delivered by electronic means to the last known electronic address of the party or the party's attorney, or the party has actual knowledge of the final order.

SECTION 9. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-5-319(c), is amended by deleting the subsection and substituting the following:

(c) A record, which may consist of a tape, electronic recording, or digital recording, must be made of all oral proceedings. Such record or a part thereof must be transcribed on request of a party at such party's expense or may be transcribed by the agency at the agency's expense. If the agency elects to transcribe the proceedings, then a party must be provided copies of the transcript upon payment to the agency of a reasonable compensatory fee. Notwithstanding the requirement to make a record of all oral proceedings, a record of a prehearing conference is not required to be made.

SECTION 10. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-5-321(a)(3), is amended by deleting the subdivision and renumbering the subsequent subdivisions accordingly.

SECTION 11. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-5-321(b), is amended by deleting the language "a manual of".

SECTION 12. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 4-5-325, is amended by deleting the language "administrative law judge" wherever it appears and substituting the language "administrative judge".

Rep. Vaughan moved adoption of Commerce Committee Amendment No. 1 as follows:

Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 2304 by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 45, Chapter 13, Part 2, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

(a) As used in this section, "remote location" means a location at which the employees of a licensee may conduct business other than a licensed location, the licensee's principal place of business, or a licensed branch office.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c), this chapter does not prohibit an employee of a licensee from performing licensable activities at the employee's residence or another remote location in accordance with the licensee's written supervisory policies and procedures.

(c) A licensee may permit an employee to work at a remote location only under the following conditions:

(1) Access to licensee's platforms and customer information are in accordance with the licensee's comprehensive written information security plan;

(2) In-person customer interactions do not occur at the employee's residence unless the residence is a licensed location;

(3) Physical records are not maintained at the remote location;

(4) Customer interactions, data, and conversations about consumers comply with federal and state information security
